Gen. 2:7-8

God Made the First Man

7 The Always-Present One, God, took some dirt from the ground, and from it He shaped a man. Into the man's nose, God breathed the breath of life. And, the man became a living person.

8 God, the One Who Is Always Present, then planted a garden in Eden in the east. There He placed the man whom He had formed.